LONG-DISTANCE PHONE OPERATORS PLANNING NATION-WIDE STRIKE

DATE NOT SET BUT FAILURE OF PARLEY ON WAGES REPORTED

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—Plans for a nation-wide strike of long distance telephone operators were set up today by the CIO American Telephone Workers Union but the date for a walkout was left open.

The union headed by John J. Moran, has been engaged in a wage dispute with the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

The union rperesents 23.000 long distance workers in 42 states. Union and A. T and T. representatives came here yesterday for conferences with the conciliators of the Federal Mediation Service in an effort to reach an agreement.

Strike "Only Choice"

Moran said actions of the A. T. and T. and "failure to find some method of effecting a peaceful settlement leaves us with but one choice—a nationwide strike."

The union wants a 30 cents an hour wage boost, a shorter work week and larger pensions. It says workers now average $1.21 an hour.

Moran and his bargaining committee planned to leave at once for Boston to confer with CIO President Philip Murray, attending the steel workers convention.

Plans for cooperation of the entire CIO, including other telephone unions in the newly formed Telephone Workers Organizing Committee, will be discussed with Murray, Moran sold reporters.

Arbitration Offered.

Moran offered to submit the contract dispute to a board of inquiry or fact-finding committee.

"We pledge ourselves to abide by the recommendations of any such arbitrator or board," Moran told a news conference after efforts of the Conciliation Service to keep contract terms in operation broke down.

The contract expired May 8. The company said it would continue wages and working conditions un-

Long Auto Strike Seen; $8-Million 'Kitty' Is Raised

DETROIT, May 13.—(AP)—An $8,000,000 "kitty" being raised by the CIO United Auto Workers for their Chrysler Corp. strikers today gave the auto industry reason to fear a long walkout.

The big corporation's 75,000 production workers who walked off the job yesterday morning to enforce union demands for 17 cents more per hour were set for a long siege on the picket lines.

"The strike of the Chrysler workers is solid," declared Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer and acting president who is directing the walkout. "They are set for the duration. The Chrysler workers will win."

Pickets Active.

Some observers estimated the strike might last as long as two months.

Orderly picket lines were set up at 12 Chrysler plants in Michigan, two in Indiana and one in California a short time after the strike deadline yesterday morning.

The plant at Newcastle, Ind., shut down today.

Almost immediately effects of the auto industry's first major strike in two years began to spread. Briggs Manufacturing Co., which supplies Chrysler plants, laid off 12,0000 workers today and said the rest of its work force of 13,000 would be sent home Monday.

Should the walkout stretch into weeks, the UAW should be well set to lend financial assistance to Chrysler employes.

Fees Assessed.

Its executive board yesterday approved plans to assess a million

Rail Unions To Work For U.S., Not For Owners

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—The three railroad brotherhoods which called off their threatened nation-wide strike Monday night will run the trains a.. long as the government has control of the railroads.

But the minute the lines are turned back to the carriers, whether in two weeks or two years, they'll call another strike unless an agreement is reached meanwhile in their wage-rules dispute.

That was the word today from one of the top brotherhod men. He talked to a reporter on condition his name would not be disclosed.

This officer said the unions expect the temporary restraining order against the Engineers, Firemen and Switchmen to be made permanent by Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough after a hearing next week. This would prevent the unions from striking as long as the government has control.

Floodwaters Moving Out Of This Area After Damaging Roads, Bridges, Rail And Livestock Properties Near Here

Floodwaters from the swollen Richland and Chambers creeks are moving toward Freestone county and the Trinity river after the crests had passed this immediate section. The highest point of the waters passed the Eureka section late Wednesday night.

Highway 287 between Corsicana and Palestine was closed at Trinity river crossing in Northeast Freestone County Thursday at 10 a. m. when the river flood stage inundated the pavement, necessitating the blocking of the crossing.

The highway will probably be closed for some time.

Railroad Open.

Traffic was resumed Wednesday night over the Burlington-Rock Island Lines after the waters receded in Richland creek lowlands to where rail crews could determine that the track and fills were not dangerous.

Cotton Belt System traffic between Corsicana and Dawson was slated to be resumed Thursday afternoon after a washout near Corbet is repaired. A pile-driver crew from Tyler arrived Wednesday for this job.

Richland creek reached the highest floodstage in the past 20 years. While Chambers was high, it was not a record-breaking overflow since the precipitation on its Johnson and Ellis county headwaters was not so large as that in Hill county where Richland originates.

The precipitation here approximated six inches since Monday.

Bridge Damaged.

The pavement on the western approach to Ward bridge, Richland creek, old Highway 31 route, was undermined and only autos are being allowed to cross, with trucks being stopped. This pavement was inundated Wednesday. Battle creek crossings near Dawson also were damaged.

Extensive road and street damage has been reported, but a detailed and accurate estimate cannot be secured until all of the streams recede and officials can inspect bridges, dumps and abutments.

Livestock Losses.

Some livestock losses are feared along Richland creek and its tributaries.

Dock Boldin is believed to have lost some cattle southwest of Corbet in Richland creek bottoms. A herd of 105 was in that section and more than 50 had been located late Wednesday and others have been seen on high ground. The owners and others returned to the section Thursday to seek the remaining cattle, some of which are known to have gone into an adjoining pasture.

Light Rains Reported.

The Associated Press reported light, widely scattered showers dotted East Texas this morning from Dallas to the Gulf coast.

Two far-separated sets of showers were forecast for West Texas east of the Pecos and the extreme south part of East Texas tonight or tomorrow, but there was no indication of a return of heavy rains which reached most parts of the state Monday and Tuesday.

Flood waters from drenched Northeast Texas still moved slowly toward the Gulf today on the Trinity and Sabine rivers. The Trinity crest passed Dallas during the night with no greater damage

Union Heads Debate Steel Industry's Contract Refusal If Law Not Obeyed

BOSTON, May 13.—(AP)—CIO President Philip Murray said today that the major steel companies have refused to negotiate new contracts with the CIO Steelworkers unless the union complies with the Taft-Hartley act.

Murray said the problem of whether or not to obey the non-Communist pledge in the law has mode the union's situation "extremely grave." But he pleaded with the 3,200 steelworkers delegates to give their executive board "the power to make this enormous determination."

Murray charged that there has been "raiding of extremely disreputable nature by some CIO unions which have complied against those who have not complied.

"The American Federation of Labor has taken advantage of every single opportunity to use the facilities of the National Labor Relations Board to take away the rights of unions which have not complied."

The CIO president said that U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, Inland, Allegheny and "the major basic steel companies have informed me that it is not their intention to renegotiate new agreements if the union has not complied."

Peace Hopes Not Raised By Exchange Of Notes With Russia, Truman Says

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—President Truman said today that his hopes for eventual peace have not been increased by the recent exchange of notes with Russia.

The President told a news conference he is supporting to the limit Secretary of State Marshall's statement that what is needed is action, rather than general talks. Marshall said yesterday that if Russia desires to promote peace she can act through the United Nations and other allied agencies. The secretary of state ruled out any two-nation, Russo-American talks on matters of concern also to other nations.

Would Meet Stalin.

President Truman said Marshall covered thoroughly the situation as left by the exchange of notes between Russia and the United States.

In response to questions, the President repeated what he has said often before—that he would be glad to meet with Soviet Premier Stalin in Washington.

Asked what the two would talk about at such a meeting, the President said he would let the newsmen know if such a meeting ever came about.

Soviet Change Awaited.

The whole reaction here to Russia's publication of the notes suggests that the chance for any real improvement in relations between Russia and the United States hinges on whether there will be a basic change in Soviet foreign policy.

That is indicated strongly by the statements of all top officials.

In reply to other questions, Mr. Truman said the note Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith handed Foreign Minister Molotov had his approval and that of his cabinet.

Someone asked if he and the cabinet had considered the last paragraph of Smith's note.

(The Russians interpreted that part as an invitation to two-power talks.)

The President replied that the matter had been considered from the beginning to the yours truly.

Then he added that he did not see that the exchange of notes had increased materially the prospects for peace.

Both President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall have emphasize within the last three days that there is no departure in American policy, which is aimed at

U.S. To Halt Aid For Any Countries Helping Russians

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—The United States will shut off economic aid to any European nation which supplies war machinery to Russia, ERP Director Paul Hoffman said today.

Hoffman said:

"We will tell them they must stop it or we won't furnish aid."

The Economic Cooperation Administrator was before the Senate Appropriations Committee to ask further funds for the European Recovery Program.

Assurance Given.

Senator Cordon (R-Ore) asked Hoffman what he intended to do to "control the translation of our goods and money" into war machinery for Russia?

"If it is true", said Hoffman, "that we are furnishing aid, and if a country is shipping such commodities, (to Russia), they have got to stop it or we won't furnish aid."

Hoffman gave the senators assurance, too, that ECA will ship abroad only those goods "which can wisely and safely be spared."

Full Fund Sought.

Hoffman appeared before the committee to plead for the full $4,245,000,000 balance needed to round out the $5,300,000,000 Congress has authorized for the recovery program.

The remainder of the sum has been provided for through advanc-

President Defies Congress To Get Secret Records

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)—President Truman today defied congress to get confidential information from the White House or the cabinet.

He told a news conference that congress has no right to confidential records of members of his cabinet.

He said he would veto any legislation requiring such records. And that he did not believe the veto would be overridden.

Court Rulings Cited

The courts have held repeatedly, he said, that the president and his cabinet cannot be forced to divulge confidential information.

Congressional committee workers and officials in executive agencies appear likely to be the only persons subject to jail terms under a so-called "secrets" bill now pending.

Truman also said he expects to send to congress tomorrow a message on the farm problems, but has no message in mind on U. S. aid to rearm western Europe.

He told news men that he is not ready to announce the appointment of a new secretary of agriculture.

Farm Message Due

Clinton Anderson resigned Monday as secretary to run for the senate in New Mexico with the president's blessing.

Mr. Truman gave no indication what he will propose in tomorrow's message, regarded as a bid for the farmer's vote.

The Republican-controlled senate agriculture committee got the jump on Mr. Truman yesterday by laying down a long-range farm plan calling for a revised price support program.

The bill provides a sliding scale of price supports for agricultural commodities which now are being maintained at 90 percent of parity.

When the crops provide a normal supply the price supports would be

Move To Amend Natural Gas Law Killed In Senate

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—The senate commerce committee voted 8 to 4 today to kill the controversial Moore-Rizley bill to amend the natural gas act.

The measure was passed by the house last summer. It would exclude the Federal Power Commission from jurisdiction over the production and gathering of natural gas in the field.

Opponents contended it would cost gas consumers tens of millions of dollars annually.

The committee acted behind closed doors after the senate sponsor, Senator Moore (R-Okla), had argued that passage of the bill was essential to assure an adequate supply of fuel for defense purposes and other needs.

SOUTHERN SENATORS TO BATTLE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVE NOW

EDUCATION MEASURE PRESENTS CHANCE FOR TEST OF SENTIMENT

W. HINGTON, May 13—(AP)—She senate today sidetracked a civil rights battle at this time by returning to committee a Southern States' education compact bill.

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)—Southern senators decided today they will take on a civil rights fight in the senate now if backers of anti-segregation laws want to force the issue.

Fifteen Dixie senators agreed at a meeting that they will try to keep their regional education compact bill before the senate. A senate vote is scheduled later today on a motion to send the measure back to the judiciary committee.

Amendment Proposed

The civil rights issue is tied in because of a threatened move to add an anti-segregation amendment.

Senator Russell (D-Ga) said the Southerners would be agreeable, however, to laying their bill aside temporarily for other matters.

Russell said 16 Democrats held a conference in the office of Senator Byrd (D-Va). He said all except one announced he would oppose the move to send it back to committee.

Education Bill Issue

The bill seeks congressional approval of an education compact entered into by 15 Southern states as the first step toward creating a series of regional universities.

Senator Morse (R-Ore) has moved to send the measure back to the judiciary committee for further study. He contends that under the Constitution such pacts do not require approval of congress.

Morse has announced that if his motion is defeated, he will call up an amendment intended to prevent segregation of negroes from white students in the proposed regional schools.

He also has threatened to tack the rest of President Truman's civil rights program to the compact bill. It was that program—calling for anti-lynch, anti-job discrimination and anti-poll tax legislation—which touched off the rebellion of Southern Democrats.

They have promised a fillibuster whenever any of these measures is brought up.

Jewish Forces Order Full Mobilization When British Leave, Own Nation Set Up

JERUSALEM, May 13—(AP)—Jewish forces called upon all trained men and women of fighting age today to mobolize for the "zero hour" in Palestine when a Jewish state is proclaimed.

The state will be proclaimed early tomorrow night, effective one minute after midnight, when the British mandate ends. The Jewish provisional government decided in Tel Aviv to proclaim the state early in the evening to avoid such action on the Jewish sabbath.

The Jewish mobolization call, issued in Haifa, ordered all men and women between the ages of 18 and 35 who have had any previous military training to report immediately for duty. These include not only those who have had training in Jewish forces, but also those who had any type of previous military training.

Observers said this was a precaution against possible invasion by the neighboring Arab countries. Egypt has imposed a state of siege to prepare for possible Holy Land action. Syria and Labanon are clamping down martial law when the mandate ends Friday midnight.

At the same time the seven-nation Arab league prepared to set up what it called an Arab civil administration, as distinguished from a state, to function in cooperation with occupying Arab forces.

Jaffa Surrenders

Haganah, the Jewish army planned to take over all-Arab Jaffa, which adjoins Tel Aviv. Jaffa's Arab emergency committee, set up when the port city's municipal government collapsed last week following Jewish attacks, surrendered Jaffa at 11 a. m. in Tel Aviv, accepting all Jewish terms.

In Cairo, Egypt's cabinet members approved a draft of a royal decree proclaiming martial law for Egypt as a means of supporting possible Egyptian military moves in support of the Palestine Arabs. The decree provides for appointment of Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashi Pasha as military governor. The interior ministry said the king would sign it in a matter of hours.

Political maneuvering still is going on. A Jewish agency spokesman said last night that "we still hope for an agreement with Abdullah," king of Trans-Jordan to the east, to head off full-scale war between Palestine Jews and the armies of neighboring Arab states.

New U.S. Plan In U.N. Is Denounced By Jewish Agency

LAKE SUCCESS, May 13—(AP)—A 15-nation sub-group of the United Nations special Palestine assembly today approved a temporary trusteeship-type regime for Jerusalem.

LAKE SUCCESS, May 13.—(AP)—The Jewish agency charged today the new U. S. plan for a Palestine high commissioners on attempt to set aside the United Nations partition project.

A Jewish agency spokesman said in a formal statement that the American proposal would increase disorder and conflict in Palestine instead of bringing peace.

The plan was announced last night after President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall conferred in Washington on Palestine

The surprise move came as the U. S. Assembly desperately sought to reach an agreement, however small, before the British give up their mandate rule over Palestine at midnight (4 p. m. CST) tomorrow.

New American Plan.

The new American plan was announced here by a spokesman shortly after President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall conferred in Washington.

The spokesman said it is hoped to push the proposal through a 12-nation assembly group by to-

Lyndon Johnson In Senate Race; O'Daniel Silent

By DAVE CHEAVENS.

AUSTIN, May 13.—(AP)—A red-hot three-way contest for Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel's U. S. senate seat was assured today with the entry of Rep. Lyndon Johnson into the race.

You can still get even money here that O'Daniel would seek re-election, but he isn't saying. At Washington he said he wasn't losing any sleep over Johnson's jump into the race.

Already in the thick of campaigning are George Peddy of Houston and former Gov. Coke Stevenson of Junction.

Veteran Lawmaker.

Johnson, 39, an 11-year veteran of service in the house from the 10th Texas district, made the plunge into the race yesterday, saying it would have been easier for him to have sought re-election to the house.

"Word has reached me that men who have never supported me urged that I stand for re-election," Johnson said. "The fact is, they fear that I will win. They don't want me in the senate. That helped me to decide."

Those words indicated that Johnson will make an aggressive race. He is a hard campaigner who believes in meeting as many people and making as many speeches per day as time and strength permit.

Texan Is Robbed, Shot To Death In Car Near Midland

MIDLAND, May 13.—(AP)—Raymond Shook, 46, Lubbock tire dealer was found shot to death early today in his automobile on the Garden City highway, in Glasscock county, 20 miles southeast of Midland.

His pocketbook and personal possessions were missing and officers believed robbery was the motive. He had been shot once, in the chest.

Body Identified.

Shook's body was identified by Jerry Fulton of Lubbock, a business associate. Fulton said Shook left Lubbock a week ago to go to San Angelo. Shook and his brother, Milvin, operated tire stores at Lubbock, San Angelo, Abilene and Sweetwater.

Officers were attempting to learn the origin of a telephone call to a funeral home here at 6 a. m., which led to finding of the body. The unidentified caller said a man had been shot to death on the Midland-Garden City highway and hung up without disclosing his identity.

Road Blocks Set.

Officers from Midland and Glasscock counties laid down road blocks this morning in an effort to intercept the slayer. No gun was found at the scene. Shook's 1947 model Buick car was parked at the roadside.

Truman Speaks Out Against Outlawing Communist Party While Dewey, Stassen Argue Same Question In Campaign

By The Associated Press.

President Truman spoke out today against outlawing the Communist Party—an issue already hotly debated by two Republican presidential hopefuls, Dewey and Stassen.

Mr. Truman, who is seeking the Democratic nomination to succeed himself, commented at a White House news conference in reply to questions. He said he though legislation outlawing a political party is contrary to American principles.

Mr. Truman said he was not forecasting his action on that bill if it should reach him, but that he thought that there were ample laws to deal with persons who advocate overthrow of the government.

Dewey View Same.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, who currently is campaigning against Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota for Oregon's delegates to the Republican National Convention, also has opposed making the Communist pasty illegal. He has advocated that the party be kept in the open and under control.

Stassen, on the contrary, has demanded that Communism be outlawed in all "freedom loving countries." Stassen said last night:

"President Truman, Governor Dewey, and Henry Wallace all continue to believe that the blessings of legality should be extended to the Communist organization."

Debate Before May 21.

The two may debate the issue on the same platform before Oregon votes May 21.

On the political front elsewhere:

In Detroit, Henry Wallace, third party candidate, conferred with followers of the Progressive Party of Michigan prior to a political rally that will start a 23-day Midwest and Pacific Coast speaking tour.

Wallace supporters reported setbacks in the South. An assistant professor at the University of Georgia, and three instructors at the University of Miami, said they had been discharged for political activities in Wallace's behalf.

CIO Group Active.

Jack Kroll, director of the CIO's Political Action Committee, said he will have 250,000 assistants in this year's presidential and congressional campaigning. But he said the PAC will not decide on its presidential candidate until July.

The CIO Steelworkers convention in Boston voted to delay endorsing any presidential hopeful until after the Democratic and Republican conventions. The convention condemned Wallace's third party.

In Washington, Gov. Dwight H. Green of Illinois, who will keynote the Republican convention and serve as temporary chairman, conferred with Speaker Joseph W. Martin. Martin will take over as permanent chairman after Green's keynote speech.

Hospital Site Of State Program To Control Cancer

By Dr. R. Lee Clark, Jr., Director
M. D Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research

HOUSTON, May 12—(Spl)—The cancer control program of he State of Texas is centered in the state cancer hospital, the M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research.

This hospital is designed to function as a central source of information relating to cancer. It has at its disposal the most modern mechanisms that have been found useful in the detection and treatment of cancer. Equally important, the hospital maintains a staff that is trained in the use of this equipment This highly trained staff and this equipment are for the ultimate benefit and use of the physicians of Texas, and their patients.

In order that the M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research might serve best as a research and educational center in the field of cancer prevention and treatment, the legislators and physicians of the State who designed the bill by which the Hospital was created, placed the Hospital under the administrative control of the chief educational institution of the State —the University of Texas.

Four Functions

The M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research has four functions, all of which relate to the general field of cancer. These functions are prevention, treatment, research, and education.

Prevention—The hospital operates a Cancer Prevention Clinic for the purpose of making physical examinations of persons, with particular emphasis upon conditions that may be associated with cancer. This Clinic is not for sick persons; it is for well folk only. No appointment will be made for anyone who is under treatment by a physician, unless the physician requests such an appointment, in writing. The clinic does not give treatment of any kind. If, during the course of examination, any lesion suggestive of cancer is found, the examinee is referred to his physician for further study and treatment.

Treatment—The hospital admits for treatment indigent patients from any part of the State, without cost to the patient. The patient must make written application on a form furnished by the hospital to the patient, his physician, or to a friend or relative of the patient. Each application must be accompanied by a written statement from the patient's physician to the effect that the patient has or is suspected of having a cancerous growth; in addition, the physician should provide other facts regarding the patient's condition including his opinion that the patient can be benefited by further treatment. No terminal cases can be accepted as this is an active treatment hospital. The patient must be responsible for his own transportation and maintenance in Houston pending the time that he is admitted to the hospital.

Research Pushed

Research—The research program at the hospital is in its early stage of development. At present, investigations are being made in the fields of biochemistry, biology, and clinical pathology. The significance of nucleic acids and enzymes in the processes of normal and abnormal growth has been the subject of considerable research. Through these studies, efforts are being made to develop diagnostic procedures that will aid in detecting the presence of cancer in its earliest stages. Investigations also are being made of the value of the smear technic in the diagnosis of cancer. And there are several other lines of investigations that are being pursued. There can be no reasonable doubt that these studies will lead to a better understanding of cancer, its cause and treatment.

Education—The educational activities are under the Graduate School of the University of Texas. At present, the hospital is cooperating with the American Cancer Society, Texas Division: the Texas State Department of Health, and the State Medical Association of Texas, in publishing the Texas Cancer Bulletin, a magazine for physicians, which presents the most modern aspects of cancer prevention and treatment. This Bulletin is prepared at the hospital, by its staff. Other educational activities include graduate training in medicine, dentistry, nursing and technical specialities as they relate to cancer diagnosis and therapy. Several of these programs are already under way and include cooperative programs with other branches of the University of Texas. Particularly active at the present time is a program of study in conjunction with the Dental Branch at Houston, concerning the care of mouth malignancies.

Mrs. A. B. Keen Is Speaker As Rotary Honors Mothers

The modern mother "has so much to do, bringing up children on the best psychology books," but "motherhood is still the best paying-off policy in existence," Mrs. A. B. Keen of Kerens said Wednesday at a luncheon of the Rotary Club.

Mrs. Keen, mother of Curtis A and L. S. Keen, both Rotarians, was one of nine mothers of club members introduced at the meeting.

On behalf of the others she gave the response to the welcoming note sounded by Dr. J. I. Cartlidge, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Minister's Wife.

Wife of a Methodist minister, Mrs. Keen recalled the days "when everybody stayed all night at the parsonage." On one particular week end, she said, 22 persons slept in the four-room house.

"There seems to have been more living, more loving, more sharing," she said.

"We had no problems of spinach and strained vegetables. No problems of vitamins, development of individualities and presence of inhibitions. Life was much simpler when you raised a child on the hip and kitchen floor."

Raising a child was simpler, too, she implied, when "there were not quite so many pitfalls and problems and world-shaking events."

Enjoyed Families.

"We had more time to enjoy our children and our families and our neighbors," she declared. "I wonder how many mothers have time today to sit down and teach the Sunday school lesson to their children?"

Another guest was Mrs. George T. Jester, mother of Beauford H. Jester, governor of Texas and member of the club. She gave a toast to the mother of Moyne L. Kelly, club president, who was unable to attend.

Dr. Cartlidge in welcoming the mothers, described them as "queens without crowns."

Other Mothers.

Others attending with their sons were Mrs. A. Prince, Mrs. J. W. David, Mrs. T. M. George, Jr., Mrs. C. A. Middleton, Mrs. Burney Moore, Mrs. W. P. McCammon and Mrs. C. O. Curington.

The Rev. Erwin F. Bohmfalk, pastor of the First Methodist church, sang "Little Mother of Mine" and "Mother Machree," accompanied by Mrs. O. W. Holmes.

Other guests included John Adams of Chico, Calif.; Ralph Tinkle of Dallas and Bill Hanley of Tyler, visiting Rotarians; George Peddy of Houston, candidate for U. S. senator; Wiley Tye, Julian W Murray of Dallas; Arthur C. Young, new Corsicana Boy Scout executive; Dick Robinson and Don Dechard, junior Rotarians.

Tots of the State Home were presented in a short program feature, and carried the gifts to the mothers.

County Council In Saturday Business Session

The county council of the Home Demonstration Clubs met at Kinsloe House on Saturday, May 8 at 2 p. m. in regular session.

Clubs represented were Barry, Bazette, Corbet, Dawson, Emhouse, Pickett, Richland Roane, White's Chapel, Frost, Kerens, Mildred asd Oak Valley.

Suggestions for the work of the clubs for the next year were turned in to the yearbook chairman.

Work on the calendar was reported well on the way. Prizes of $15, $10 and $5 are to be given the three clubs turning in the most money. All names and money are to be turned in at council meeting in July.

A representative from each club meets with Miss Merritt on Friday, May 14 at 10 a. m. to discuss the calendar.

Measure your club blanks were passed out and should be filled out and turned in at the next council meeting.

It was announced that the district encampment at Lake Trinidad will be held on May 24, 25 and 26, and the delegates from Navarro county are as follows:

Mrs. D. B. Bennett Oak Valley; Addie Parish, Whites Chapel; Mrs. Howard Pitts, Dawson; Mrs. Herbert Bush, Barry; Mrs. Wilbur Black Kerens.

Handwork will be taught at the encampment, and each night there will be some kind of recreation. Navarro county will have charge of the song service. Tuesday night is visitors night.

The next program for the clubs will be cutting and sewing plaid and stripe material instead of lawn furniture, as listed in the year books.

FRONT-MOUNTED
Tractor Implements

When implements are mounted forward on the tractor, rather than pulled behind, they need no wheels of their own. They cost less. Furthermore, they can be attached quickly and controlled automatically by tractor power.

A-C FRONT-MOUNTED planters, cultivators, fertilizer attachments and rotary hoes represent still another step forward . . . ahead of the driver's seat. You watch the row ahead easily and naturally . . . never twisting to look behind.

Forward vision is an invaluable feature for precision planting, fertilizing and cultivating young plants. You'll find it not only pays to "look ahead" — it's a pleasure.

But in those states there were new reports of preparations for invasion. New Iraqi troops arrived at Mafrak in Trans-Jordan. Travelers from the south said Egyptian troops were moving toward Palestine.

Arabs and Jews in the Holy Land already are fighting an unofficial war. This dated back to last Nov. 29, when the United Nations assembly voted to partition Palestine into Arab and Jewish countries and put Jerusalem under international trusteeship.

The Jews last night claimed capture of the important Jordan Valley Arab city of Beisan, but west and south of Jerusalem they still fought to clear Arabs from strategic roads.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Jeb Had the Folks in Stitches!

At the Friday Night Social, Jeb Crowell had the audience in stitches—doing a take-off on the blustering character who belittles everybody and everything that isn't from his own home town.

Well, we can laugh at that sort of character because from where I sit, Americans are just the opposite. We like to boast a bit perhaps, about the paint job on the new barn, or the missus' style of cooking—but we aren't intolerant of people who don't think or act exactly the same way we do.

In our town, for instance: Some folks like band concerts, others don't—some families serve beer with dinner, others, buttermilk—and as for politics, there's plenty of healthy disagreement.

But when it comes to denying folks the right to think or act as they choose ... no, we're like you—we don't believe in it, whether it goes for serving beer, or speaking one's mind on public affairs.

pegged at 75 percent of parity. When the supply of any farm commodity varied from 70 to 130 percent of normal, the supports would range from 90 down to 60 percent of parity.

The committee reviewed the parity formula—the system of figuring prices designed to be equally fair to the farmer and those who buy his produce—by adding a "modernization" clause.

This keeps the 1909-1914 base period currently used but provides for adjustments to the price relationships of the most recent ten years. That would mean that the parity price of most field crops would come down.

Palestine Ignored

To a question whether the U. S. would recognize a Jewish state in Palestine, he said he would cross that bridge when he came to it.

The president repeated today that it is still difficult to get men to take important federal positions. He made this statement in explaining why he had not yet found a man to fill a vacancy on the maritime commission.

He said he had his own reasons for delaying the promised appointment of Harriner Eccles as vice chairman of the Federal Reserve Board.

preventing further expansion of Russian power.

But the hope that there may be a change in the Soviet attiude toward the "cold war" and an increased willingness to settle outstanding problems was suggested directly by Marshall at News conference.

Marshall cited a passage from Molotov's note last Sunday in which he declared that Russia intends to carry out "a peace-loving policy and one of collaboration with regard to the U.S.A."

Molotov said this has always been Russia's policy and it has had the unanimous support of the Soviet people.

Marshall told reporters this passage should be interpreted on the basis of the future rather than the past and that in this light it was a very important statement.

Catholic Bishop Installed In New Austin Diocese

AUSTIN, May 13.—(AP)—His Episcopal saff in hand, the Rev. Louis Joseph Reicher, D. D., Ll. D., was seated today in the cathedral of the newest diocese of the Roman Catholic Church.

As pastor of the Diocese of Austin, Bishop Reicher will tend a flock of 76,000 Catholics living in 30 counties in the heart of Texas. His diocese is the sixth the church has created in Texas. As his seat of authority, the oldest and largest Catholic Church in the city—St. Mary's—was raised to cathederal dignity.

The installation ceremony, its pageantry and symbolism was followed by a solemn pontifical mass attended by hundreds of spectators. Among them were government leaders and representatives of non-Catholic churches, the hierarchy of the Southwest, papal knights and fourth degree Knights of Columbus, representatives of eight priestly orders and of the various religious sisters and brothers.

Many Present.

The member garb of priests and nuns, massed in the church, was a background for the brilliant robes worn by the higher prelates. Seven bishops were in the sanctuary as the Most Rev. Robert E. Lucey, archbishop of San Antonio and ranking bishop for Texas and Oklahoma, conducted the installation.

While the ceremony of obedience took place, the Most Rev. Christopher E. Byrne, bishop of Galveston, and his ministers retired to vest for the mass. Thus the man who ordained Bishop Reicher to the priesthood 30 years ago, appointed him his diocesan chancellor and finally consecrated him to the episcopate in ceremonies a month ago became the leading figure in the final act of that sequence.

Coal Operators' Spokesman Says Union At Limit

WASHINGTON May 13.—(AP)—A coal industry spokesmen today called coal miners "the aristocrats of labor" and said the limit has been reached in what the public will stand from unions

John D Battle, executive secretary of the National Coal Association, said on the eve of contract negotiations with John L. Lewis. The coal industry "will again be faced with the possibility of rising costs as a time when the cost of producing coal is already too high."

Battle continued in a weekly bulletin:

"There is a limit to what the American people will stand in the way of impositions by these unions, and that limit has been reached.

"Stocks of coal are low. Full operations of the mines will not permit a satisfactory replenishment of those stocks before cold weather, even if there is no further suspension of operations."

The soft coal negotiations will begin Tuesday in Washington. The contract expires June 30. The anthracite contract covering 80,000 Pensylvania hard coal diggers has no termination date, but Lewis has given the operators 60 days' notice he wants a new pact by July 10. Negotiations for that will begin in New York or Philadelphia on Thursday, May 20.

Lewis has said nothing about his new demands.

FROST COMMUNITY MEETING IS HELD WEDNESDAY NIGHT

COUNTY EDUCATORS AND WORTHWHILE CLUB IN JOINT SESSION

An open house meeting for the community of Frost was held in the Baptist church there Wednesday night, attended by the Navarro County School Administrators' Association and the Frost Worthwhile Club.

The educators conducted a short business session, starting at 7:30 p. m., and voted to have its first meeting of the next school year on the second Wednesday in October at Blooming Grove. Featured on their program was Relph Evans, co-ordinator of the Navarro Vocational (agriculture) School, who showed pictures of county farm projects.

The films, projected on a screen and in color, emphasized the development of teaching aids. Evans explained that the pictures were being filed into a library and that the school planned to expend the idea. The films disclose both good and bad farming operations in the county.

W. V. Harrison, Frost school superintendent, served as host to the educators, and H. C. Allen, Corsicana, president of the group, presided.

At the Worthwhile Club's open house meeting, Mrs. Harrison presided. Two speakers—Curtis Patterson of Frost, and Matt Dawson, Corsicana attorney—were presented, and they gave brief histories of Frost and Navarro county, espectively.

Refreshments were served by the club.

CREAM OF CHICKEN SOUP...Garnish with Puffed Rice.

Spring Soups Hit The Spot

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

There are good hearty recipes in a cook book called "From a Grosse Ile Kitchen" by Lucy and Sidney Corbett, published by Harper and Brothers, New York. The result of a husband-and-wife collaboration after Sidney Corbett was struck with paralysis, the book is not only about food but also about "fun and friends."

The Corbetts know the perfect soup for this time of year—leek and potato—of course. Hear them tell about it and see of your fancy doesn't turn to the kitchen.

"Leek and potato soup, made with milk—an almost forgotten spring delicacy! The leek is a sort of glorified spring onion. It has a green top, a white stem, a bulbous root with a feathery bottom, and a tough rather inedible outer skin. Cut off some of the green top and the feathery root part, and peel away the tough outer skin. Then cut all the remainder crosswise in quarter-inch slices. Allow one good-sized leek per person. Peel and dice two medium-sized potatoes per leek. Chop fine one large stalk of celery. Now put leeks, potatoes nad celery into a covered pot and boil slowly. Use only enough water to cover, and boil until leeks, celery and potatoes are reduced almost to a pulp.

"Then cut about three slices of bacon or salt pork—salt pork is better — into quarter inch cubes. Try out the cubes slowly in a frying pan.

"By now the leeks, potatoes and celery should have boiled well down. Take the cover off the pot, add the bacon or salt pork cubes, and stir in. Add milk—two cups per person—and bring everything to a boil—very slowly, stirring occasionally to prevent burning, until the soup is the consistency of good cream. Salt and pepper to taste, but be careful of the salt if you have used salt pork rather than bacon for the cubes.

"While all this is in progress, cut slices of stale bread—one slice per person—into half-inch cubes and brown the cubes in the remaining hot fat in the frying pan.

"When all is ready, serve the soup in a tureen or ladle directly into bowls. Put the croutons in another bowl—heat it first—and sprinkle a liberal handful atop of each bowl of soup as it is served. Delicious, delicate, satisfying—an ideal spring dainty."

Here is another good soup for spring. Serve with a crisp salad, and a fruit dessert, it will make an excellent company lunch.

Cream of Chicken Soup With Special Garnish.

4 tablespoons butter or margarine. 2-3 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 cups hot milk, 1-4 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 3 cups rich chicken stock, 1-2 cup diced cooked chicken, 1 1-2 cups puffed rice, 1-4 cup melted butter or margarine, 1-2 teaspoon curry powder, 1-4 teaspoon turmeric 1-2 teaspoon salt.

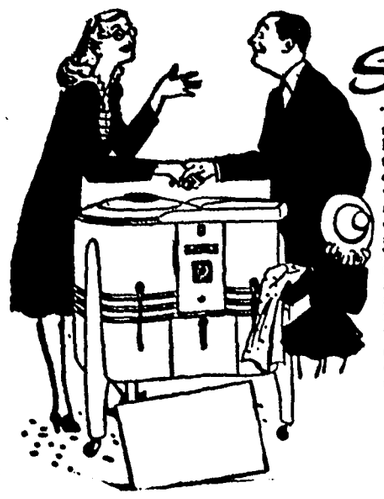

Melt 4 tablespoons butter or margarine in heavy saucepan. Add flour, salt and stir until it bubbles. Add hot milk slowly, stir until smooth and cook until thickened. Blend in chicken stock, add meat and heat very hot. Garnish with puffed rice mixed and crisped with 1-4 cup melted butter or margarine blended with curry, turmeric and salt. Six servings.

SOCIAL CHARTER

The charter of social guarantees for the Western Hemisphere, drafted at the Bogota conference, is an attempt to set up international standards for working conditions and pay. It seems to have the broad human objective of improvement in the lot of man throughout the hemisphere.

Probably reforms in working conditions are not needed in the Western Hemisphere any more than in the other half of the world, but probably neither are they less needed.

The dissent of the United States in the formation of this charter might easily be misunderstood and misrepresented. The people of this country are very much in sympathy with the aims of the charter, but the goals and standards it sets forth are in general lower than those already achieved in this country. We wish for our neighbors the nearest possible approach to our own standards, but the nation has declined to place itself on record as accepting goals lower than our own. Some of the proposals in the charter, the official delegates said, would violate the United States Constitution.

In these respects we have failed to assent not because we disapprove the basic theory, but because we are so far ahead in actual practice.

The charter, however, represents gains on the previous practice of the nations signing it, and if it should prove to be an effective instrument it would mean a great stride forward in the building up of the Americas.

FEW SOLO SAFELY

A young English soldier on a fast London express pulled an emergency signal to halt the train at his home village, an unscheduled stop. Another train was following. Before it could be warned, it crashed into the stopped express. More than 20 persons were killed.

The youth was just homesick, eager to make the most of a shore leave. His thoughts and vision went no further than his own concerns.

Both individuals and whole nations, like the English lad, sometimes fail to realize that others are using the same tracks. Personal catastrophe and world wars result.

Peace is secure when there is imagination to comprehend the presence and rights of others.

UNITED NATIONS FIRST

It is disquieting news that military lend-lease is receiving official consideration in Washington. In a news conference Secretary of State Marshall indicated that the United States government views limited military aid as a possible means of strengthening certain European nations in their stop-Russia efforts.

A far better peace effort would be the forwarding of measures whereby the power of the United Nations might be strengthend in dealing with actual or threatened aggression.

The United Nations is the world's voluntary agency for keeping the peace. This nation—and all other members—should give it full support.

STRENGTHENING THE WEST

The five nations of western Europe which recently formed a political, economic, military alliance have begun to set up administrative and conference groups to make their alliance an actual operating force. A central administrative committee will bring representatives of the five nations together for weekly talks.

The five nations appear bent on setting the world an example in international cooperation. By maintaining close and continuous contact confidence and understanding can be built up, to aid in solving future problems of relations which may occur from time to time.

There is the possibility also of expanding the alliance into some sort of a union of European states, and this idea is to be explored in a conference at The Hague. The alliance in present form may spread over a large area. Already a possible invitation to Italy is under consideration.

The formation of the five-power alliance strengthens western Europe, and offers encouragement elsewhere.

WALKING CAST

A pretty nurse, with cold concern,
Held high the leg, lest it should turn.
A skillful doctor then applied
A stocking, inches much too wide,
And nipped away as much of hose
As would display my ugly toes,
And then, about my ankle passed
The stuff that makes a walking cast.
"A walking cast," said he, "'twill be
That leaves you free of thigh and knee.
Although 'twill weigh almost a pound,
With ease you'll carry it around.
When once this job is neatly done,
If you should want to, you can run."
With that, above my form he bent
And whistled as to work he went.

I watched him as with fingers deft,
He splashed the plaster right and left,
And round my ankle toiled to make
A thing a hammer couldn't break.
I said, "Before this cast I use,
Tell me if you've paid up your dues?
Have you aunion card to show
From AFL or CIO?"

UNSAFE INSANE FOURTH

Do you remember the old-time, noisy Fourth of July? Children got up at unholy hours, 3 a. m. or earlier if their parents would let them, and fired off torpedoes and cannon-crackers all day, the louder the batter. Sensitive grown-ups looked forward to the day with dread, invalids had shattered nerves, and all too many adults and children were burned or even killed when they got too close to their dangerous toys.

Those days are gone and one man was in large part responsible. He was Dan F. Pfahl, a Cleveland councilman. The Ladies Home Journal did more than any other one institution to bring home to communities the dangers of the old Fourth, with its thousand deaths and more thousand serious accidents including hundreds of cases of partial blindness.

In 1908 Pfhal fathered an ordinance banning the sale of fireworks in the city. Other civilized communities copied the idea, and now the old noisy Fourth is a thing of the past in most areas. There is some bootlegging of fireworks, but on the whole community celebrations with evening fireworks under competent supervisions are the rule.

This was one good old custom that was not so good.

COLLEGE AND COMMUNITY

Past experience has usually shown that a distinct cleavage exists between the interests of a college and those of the community of which it is ostensibly a part. This difference led to active enmity during the early years of European universities, and riots between "town" and "gown" were fairly common in medieval times and even later.

Bard College, a small institution near Kingston, N. Y., is making a determined effort to link its activities with those of the surrounding towns. The program began with the School for Small Business which provides lectures and discussions for business men within a radius of 50 miles. Surveys are made by students to determine the nature and extent of the community's problems, and the college maps out programs aiming at their solution. A cultural center is now in the process of development, beginning with the summer playhouse and school of the theater. These experimnts are actively supported by the community, members of which work closely with the college authorities.

Both town and gown should derive benefit from this process. Students who participate in such activities are less likely to be handicaped by intellectual narrowness and better equippert for life in other communities.

MILITARY UNITY

Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon has introduced a bill for more drastic reorganization of the top administration of the military services, in the interests of unity and team work.

His proposal is to abolish the departments of Army, Navy and Air, which now have independent status, although technically subordinate to the Department of Defense. Top civilian heads of the separate services, instead of holding the rank of secretary as at present, would be assistants to the the secretary of defense.

The attempt to achieve unity by superimposing the Department of Defense over three independent service departments probably has not yet had a fair trial. Up to now the plan does not seem to have brought much unity among the services. The public squabble over the size of the Air Force revealed clearly that the Department of Defense is not yet trusted by Congress to do any planning. Neither was it able to exert enough authority to hold the supposedly subordinate service departments in line.

The matter needs further study, and perhaps new action by Congress. A spirit of cooperation instead of competition might help also.

Europe is Europe; America is America, and Asia is Asia, too. Yet it is probably more desirable than ever before in human history that there shall be now a meeting of minds and desires on a world scale. For it is so small a world, and so much depends on it!

Program 67 Years Old Brought To Light Recently

Of interest to students of the history of Navarro County is the invitation to Reunion Ball given by the citizens of Navarro County at the Opera House in Corsicana, Wednesday, August 3rd, 1881, complimentary to Parson's Brigade, which was found in the effects of an early resident of this city recently.

The sixty-seven year-old invitation listed the following committees, many of whom will be remembered by the older citizens of the community:

Arrangements: L. T. Wheeler, chairman; R. C. Mabry, M. Sterne, W. R. White, and R. P. Goodman.

Invitation: J. C. Johnson, chairman; A. Levy, R. A. High, J. D. Wood and J. K. Smyrl.

Reception: Wm. Kenner, chairman; A. M. Maddus, J. F. Conyers, B. T. Barry, and A. Furche.

Floor Managers: C. H. Allyn, chairman; F. R. Brassart, W. S. Hadley, Judge F. N. Read and John Minor.

Parsons Brigade was recruited at Waxahachie, and boasted one whole company of Navarro Countians. The Brigade was a part of the Texas Volunteers that were cited for gallantry in action, and who went North to join the forces of Stonewall Jackon for the invasion of Pennsylvania and Maryland during the War Between the States. The Navarro County Rifles and Hood's Brigade were also members of the Texas Volunteers.

Hints For Removal Of Fire Hazards Given By Chief

Fire Chief H. P. Bivins, a realist by nature of his work, has urged housewives to co-operate in the cleanup campaign slated to start May 17, and added that if they spent as much time in preventing fires as they do in preventing moths he could lay off a few trucks.

Chief Bivins reminded them that spring cleaning time walks hand-in-hand with fire prevention time. The annual crusade against winter's dust and dirt should also include removal of old newspapers, rubbish and litter responsible for a good share of the more than 300,000 annual household fires reported.

"Now is the time for every housewife to go through her home from attic to basement seeking out forgotten accumulations of rags, magazines and newspapers and just plain knick-knacks," Chief Bivins warned. "Hunt through storage bins, seldom-used closets and odd corners of the house for thee fire hazards and get rid of them. Dried-out wood, paper and cloth are tinder for building the tiniest spark into a roaring flame."

As an added precaution the chief recommended keeping approved types of fire extinguishers on hand—one for each floor of the house and a good one in the cellar.

New Tractor Tire Sheds Mud

Latest contribution to post-war farming is this scientifically designed tractor tire developed by The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company. The curved, Triple-Braced traction bars shed mud like a plow share. In tests and in actual service, the new Champion Ground Grip tire has proved to be unequaled in pulling power, self-cleaning and long service. The curved connected bars also improve riding comfort by eliminating the jolting caused by old-fashioned tread designs. A. M. Pronshinske, Arcadia, Wisconsin, points out the new features of the Firestone tire that make work easier and cheaper in the operation of his 720-acre livestock and dairy farm. 4-47-1

CIVIL RIGHTS

Dixie senators have picked Russell to quarterback their battle. He told a reporter that at today's session the group expects to decide whether to:

1. Let the compact bill go back to the judiciary committee. The Southerners admit that would kill the measure for this session.

2. Or, line up against the Morse motion and take their chances on beating off the anti-segregation amendment.

Russell indicated he favors the latter course.

"I think there are a good many senators who are for civil rights who won't follow Morse," Russell said. "However, some of our fellows are a little frightened about what might happen on a showdown."

CAMERA NEWS

ENJOYING her baby antics along with world events Susan Desfor, 7, turns another page in her "headline album."

By IRVING DESFOR

(Camera data: 4"x5" speed graphic flash bulbs—1 on camera, other 7 feet from subject; 2 peanut on extension 5 feet at left.)

Do you want a unique headline photo album? Well, that's exactly what you use—the front page headline daily newspaper. This paper, naturally. Pasted down in your album, it will date your family photo event in relation to what's going on around town or in the world. As time goes in it becomes more interesting and more valuable, a point easily proved by a glance at my daughter's album, No. 1.

The headlines are from the memorable year, 1941. Let's look at Dec. 8. The photo shows that at 7 months Susan faced a minor crisis with food—there was more on the outside of her face than inside. The big, black type on the opposite page noted an event that was going to change the food habits of that little girl and of the nation: "CONGRESS VOTES WAR."

Today historical events are still being recorded on newspaper front pages. Select the ones you consider worth saving any time you take some current snapshots. Then they'll be handy when you get down to the job of working on the album.

As for the album, there are many shapes, sizes and kinds. My preference runs to the type with pages about 8 1-2 inches by 14 inches. The pages are light colored, not black, which makes it handy for writing dates, names or titles. (I haven't liked black pages for albums or scrap books ever since I found it a nuisance first to get then to write with white ink.) Another feature of the albums I have been using is that every other page is perforated and is torn out when you come to it. That makes up for this thickness of the print pasted down on the other pages, so the bulk of the final album is not much greater than when you start.

I use rubber cement for mounting the prints and newspapers, and when properly done, it makes a clean, permanent and flat job. Now that good rubber cement is back it's safe to recommend it. Always coat the surface of the album on which the print is going, as well as the back of the print. Let them both dry before joining. Better mark a pencil outline of exactly where the picture is going, because once the rubber cement grabs hold it doesn't take orders from you about changing directions, no sir! You'll have to pull it up and start over again.

Of course, you can use a waterless paste, but beware of the ordinary paste—the kind that buckles the paper when it dries.

As for the newspaper, all you need is the top part of page one, which shows the name of the paper, the date, the headline and some of the top leads. Trim down on the white borders and tear it about 10 1-2 inches from the top. You may have to spread it across two album pages. Sometimes it can be reduced to a smaller size by having it photo-copied.

While the headlines will perk up the pictures, don't overdo it. Remember, it's primarily a photo album. And if perchance the youngsters help you, make sure that they don't slip in their favorite page—from the comic section or somebody will be sure to say:

"I see you're in the funny papers!"

Then select one photo that will fit into some part of the paper with the least damage to the page as a whole. The balance of the photos taken at about the same time should follow on succeeding pages by themselves.

Close Second.

Johnson ran O'Daniel a close race in the special senatorial election in 1941. He was regarded as one of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's closest advisors. He served in the navy during World War II.

In his announcing statement, Johnson said he didn't think Texans "have much patience with people who play only cinches. You and I know that rght now nothng is safe and easy. You're fed up with has-beens who want to sit things out."

Johnson said that by July 24, date of the first Democratic primary, he would see to it that the voters would know one of two things:

Statements Promised.

"You'll know how every candidate stands on every issue; or you'll know he's scared to tell you for fear of losing your vote."

There were already two candidates in the field to succeed Johnson in congress from the 10th district. They were Creekmore Fath 32, attorney and former aide to Interior Secretary Krug, and State Senator James A. Stanford Others were expected to announce.

Out to succeed Stanford in the state senate was John Read, former labor commissioner, and State Rep. Obie Jones. Others were expected in this race, also.

night. The scheme then would have to clear the 58-nation Political Committee and the full assembly.

It became apparent yesterday that the U. N. could not reach any agreement on an emergency regime to take over governmental control from th British tomorrow. Efforts then were diverted to less ambitious plans to bring a truce to the Holy and and mediate Jewish-Arab differences.

No Authority.

Under the American suggestion, the high commissioner would have no governmental authority. He would attempt to mediate, arrange for common services in the Holy and, provide for protection of the holy places and promote Jewish-Arab agreement on a future Palestine government.

China, France, the United States, Russia and Britain would appoint the high commissioner, who would report to Secretary-General Trygve Lie and the Security Council. His salary of approximately $15,000 plus expenses would be paid by the U. N. His term of office would be indefinite.

The Jews and Arabs offered no immediate comment on the new scheme. The Jews have said they would accept a mediation plan provided it did not interfere with establishment of a Jewish state May 15. The Arabs oppose anything that might indicate acceptance of partition.

Texas Today

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff

Boys and girls of the Bancroft common school near Orange, Texas still are on strike after three weeks. It looks like a record strike of its kind.

The stubborn demonstration has been dragging on since April 23 when it began with a wave of defiant picketing. The picketing wore off after two days and since then it has really became a strike of parents—a determined effort to oust the three trustees of the common school district.

Bancroft is a five-room, five-teacher wooden school which offers instruction from the first grade through the eighth.

130 Students

"We have 130 sudents, normally" Miss Inez Wallace, the 34-year-old principal told us. "About half of these are out on strike. The school term ends Friday, May 14. All these children who are not attending have missed their final examinations. Some probably will fail the term—the grades of others through the year will get them by in spite of missing the examinations. I don't know whether the examinations can be given at a later date. It has not been determined."

Miss Wallace, a brown-eyed, brown-haired woman, stated her position as "strictly neutral—but for the children."

Beyond My Efforts

"I have made every effort," she said, "to get the children back to school. But all this is beyond my efforts—it probably will be decided in court."

A total of 115 parents have signed a petition asking the resignation of the trustees. The petition was submitted to the county school board which refused to take any action.

"Now," said Miss Wallace, "the parents are going to take the matter up in district court."

1..lDxp3nuup

What Caused Strike?

What caused the strike? Miss Wallace said:

"Parents and children objected to some rules imposed by the trustees. In the first place, no pets are allowed on the premises. Parents and all other persons, besides the teachers and students, are not allowed on the grounds except for a few minutes at a time, and only then if they have a good reason for being there.

"Teachers are not allowed to leave the premises between 8:15 a. m. and 3:15 p. m. Students are not permitted to go home to lunch. If, for some reason, a student forgets his lunch, he is not allowed to go home for it unless he has written permission from his parent. Obviously, if the child is at school, he cannot get written permission from his parents.

Another Source

"There is another source of bad feeling. Although all three of the trustees live in the Bancroft district and have children of school age, two of them do not send their children to the Bancroft school. They send them, instead, to school in Orange. This has not gone over well with other parents."

Miss Wallace sighed. "The issues probably will be fought out in court this summer," she said. "I won't be here—I'm going to the University of Houston for the summer to work on my Doctor's degree."

Corsicanan Will Get Engineering Award At A&M

COLLEGE STATION, May 13.—(Spl.)—H. J. Auverman, of Corsicana, electrical engineering student, Texas A. and M. College, has been selected to receive the Engineering Faculty Achievement Award for June, 1948.

The Corsicana student is one of four to receive the awards, which are presented each semester to graduating members of the senior class who have achieved distiction by high scholastic attainment and "noteworthy contributions to the growth and progress of the School of Engineering and the College."

The award will be in the form of a large bronze placque on a mahogany background and will be presented by H. W. Barlow, dean of engineering, at the commencement exercises in June.

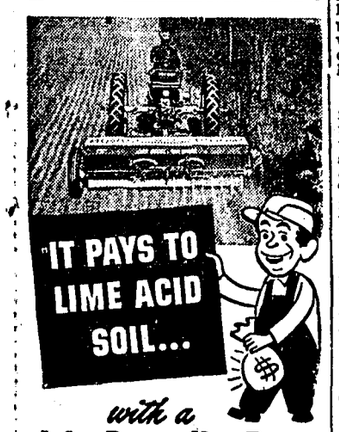

Auverman had a grade point average of 2.59. He is a distinguished student, six semesters, placed four in the slide rule contest, first in the EE group. Lions Club Plans Street Carnival During Centennial

The Lions Club board of directors voted unanimously at a meeting Tuesday night to sponsor a street carnival Saturday night, July 3, during the Corsicana Centennial celebration.

"It will be a gala affair," said Secretary John Bryant, "and much bigger than the Hallowe'en Carnival last year."

The decision was made after the centennial committee requested the Lions to sponsor the carnival, which will provide fun and entertainment for "both the young and old," Bryant said.

Proceeds will be shared with the Navarro Junior College. The Lions funds will go into the club's charity fund.

The directors, who met at the Corsican, also voted to give $100 to the Gonzales Warm Spring Foundation.

DALLAS, May 12.—(Spl.)—Bette Sue Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Pierce, 1121 West Fifth Ave., will graduate from Southern Methodist University with high honors, it was announced in an honors assembly May 12.

According to officials, Miss Pierce passed the honors examinations with distinction and is maintaining the required high grade average.

An English and German major, Miss Pierce has been active in the YWCA and was editor of the 1948 Rotunda, college yearbook.

She was graduated from Corsicana High School in 1944.

A REAL WHOPPER—This 82-pound yellow catfish was snared in a trap at Lake Halbert Saturday morning along with some 300 pounds of carp and buffalo. Paul Schultz of Kerens and Corsicana, who has been employed by the City of Corsicana to snare the undesirable fish in the city reservoir, is seen standing by the big fellow at the Floyd Hardy store where he was weighed. A son, Grady Shultz, is also shown. Schultz estimates the fish is about 20 years old, but admits he's an expert only in catching the finny tribe and not in telling their ages. The fisherman said he is of the opinion there are other fish in th lake bigger than this one, but admits it's the biggest one he has ever seen caught from an artificial lake. He landed one several years ago—a 92-pounder—10 pounds larger than this one—in a river. (Photo by Taylor Studio.)

STERN PROPHETIC WORDS ECHO DOWN THE CENTURIES

Rugged Reproofs From Old Malachi That Are Pertinent To Our Times—His Call To Better Living—Paced For Our Religion

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

As many a paragrapher has remarked, there is more sugar than salt in much contemporary Christianity. That is why it is fermenting in itself and not preserving society as it should. The reason that we have so many flabby-minded preachers and gelatinous church members is simply because they think that Christians are called to be sugar; whereas they are really meant to be salt—and salt stings and burns, even while it cleanses and cures and preserves. "Ye are the salt of the earth", saith Jesus; "and if the salt hath lost its saltness, wherewith shall it be salted?"

Nothing "Sweet" About Malachi

By the standards of the sentimentalists, the prophet who wrote the last book in the Old Testament was not "sweet"; indeed, many found him bitter. To one who looks only for "sweetness", Malachi has much that is unpalatable. He is a strong, sturdy, straight-speaking figure, who is less concerned about hurting folks' feelings than about helping their souls. Some of his utterances are rough, and so "unrefined" that fastidious preachers would not read them aloud from their pulpits.

A Preacher With Punch

Coddlers and cajolers are poor prophet stuff. The man who is going to do business with men in behalf of God must be perpared to speak unpleasant truths. The eartickler and the coiner of pleasant phrases may become a short-term favorite as a platform lecturer and as a figure at afternoon teas, but he will never make a true minister of the Gospel. Gumption is a greater gift than glibness for the forth-teller of truth. Malachi has a phrase that should be expounded at least once a year to every association of preachers, reformers and other public speakers: "Ye have wearied Jehovah with your words." There is the whish and the sting of the whip of small cords in the Book of Malachi.

The Malachi mood is common among thoughtful men today—though they stop short of his conclusion. The old prophet was fed up on the professional religionists, and his opening remarks sound like the despair of a high and honest soul, realy to give them up as a hopeless lot. He scoffed and railed and sneered at the faithless priesthood. They were not genuine. Their religion had become perfunctory. The root of truth was not in them.

Does the Lord Almighty Care?

It is no small thing when religious observances are insincere. Hypocrisy in the Church is a matter of grave concern to the entire world. Bad spots on any part of a single apple imperil the whole barrel of fruit. That Christians shall be genuine and loyal is important to the State and to business and to every other department of life. If religion does not function surely and truly, the whole human fabric will suffer. It was a collapse of simple righteousness that precipitated the two world wars; and another collapse of even clearer right that nullified the peace. A return to godliness is the shortest, straightest way back to safety and sanity.

This little excursion into the pages of Malachi makes clear the truth which is written large over every chapter of Israel's history; Jehovah cares about the conduct of men. This is a root truth. Usually, it is taken for granted, or else ignored. It is really a theme for fullest discussion. If God is interested in human beings, and how they behave, then everything takes on a new complexion. Work, play, politics, and even the secret thoughts of men's hearts, are vitally affected by the truth that what we are and do is a matter of real interest to the Lord Most High.

That all-embracing teaching is the message of Malachi. His indictment of laxity and faithlessness is on the basis that it is displeasing and disloyal to Jehovah. Nobody, he argues, can be untrue to himself or unkind to his neighbor without affronting God. The law that really governs life is essentially the will of God. Punishment finds its final expression in the displeasure of the Lord, who is personally interested in the character and conduct of every man and woman.

This Way to a New World

Nobody has to wear a Phi Beta Kappa Key, or have a diploma hanging on his wall, to understand that back of the collapse of Israel and Judah, as Malachi points out, as well as back of the collapse of our own world, as the cablegrams scream it at us, lies the collapse of individual men and women. "The whole is but equal to the sum of its parts." Quite as obvious is the truth that the only possible way to get nations and groups right with one another is to get each right with Eternal Right. The clear track back to a new world is by way of men and women who have resolved to do what God tells them to do. The ancient prophet's remedy for his people is still the most up-to-date prescription for our own time. When we all quit trying to have our own selfish way long enough to try to do what God clearly tells us is right, then we shall be facing toward the only possible sort of reconstruction that can save our world.

Better people make better neighborhoods and nations. The preacher, the teacher, the Church worker, who is kept busy about the task of making and perfecting Christians, is taking the quickest, shortest path to solving the problems of our day. When men give God his due they will not fail in justice to one another. There is a ringing note of social justice in Malachi that is more vital than modern radicalism, for it links right-doing up with the stern will of God. I quote a few lines:

"I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers and against the false-swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the sojourner from his right, and fear not me, saith Johovah of hosts."

SEVEN SENTENCE SERMONS

To make habitually a new estimate—that is elevation.
—Emerson.

We attract hearts by the qualities we display; we retain them by the qualities we possess.
—Anon.

God's in his heaven:
All's right with the world.
—Browning.

Who can refute a sneer?
—Paley.

And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?
—Luke 6:46.

Saint Augustine! Well hast thou said,
That of our voices we can frame
A ladder, if we will but tread
Beneath our feet each deed of shame.
—Longfellow.

If I were to pray for a taste which would stand me in stead under every variety of circumstances and be a source of happiness and cheerfulness to me through life, and a shield against its ills—it would be a taste for reading.
—Herschel.

New York Cotton Table

NEW YORK, May 13.—(AP)—Cotton futures drifted lower in quiet trading today. The market was influenced somewhat by evening-up operations in May and switching into later months, anticipating the expiration of trading in May contracts at noon Friday. Comission house and local selling was stimulated by reports of favorable rains in Texas and Oklahoma where the cotton crop needed more moisture.

Direct confirmation of Thursday's report that France will be an early buyer of cotton was lacking and traders were disappointed over reports that private Japanese cotton credit agreement will not be completed until some time next week.

Futures closed 70 cents a bale lower to 20 cents higher than the previous close

THE NATION TODAY
By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)—The house this week or next, expects to pass a bill aimed at crippling, if not destroying, the Communist party here.

The house seems sure to pass it, for the house is in a strong anti-Communist mood.

The bill, if it became law, would put tight controls on the party, so tight that in the end the effect might be the same as outlawing the party.

"Mundt Bill"

This bill was written by the house un-American Activities Committee. It is called the Mundt bill, after Rep. Mundt, South Dakota Republican and a member of the committee.

Although it seems certain of house passage, senate passage is not so sure.

The senate is expected to take a colder, longer look at this bill and act slowly, if it acts at all. There's this question:

Would the bill, if it became law, damage or interfere with civil liberties, like free speech, in this country?

Plenty of Opponents

The bill has plenty of opponents. For example: Some sewspaper editors, writers, the CIO and the Civil Liberties Union. The CIO says:

The bill not only "sweeps aside civil rights guaranteed to every American by the Constitution" but "seriously threatens" labor unions.

Labor unions are not mentioned in the bill. But enemies of it say a labor union some time might be pulled into its net because of the bill's wording.

"Civil Rights Violated"

The American Civil Liberties Union calls the bill "obnoxious" and, like the CIO, says it would violate civil rights.

In spite of the vigorous anti-Communist feeling in this country, there is also plenty of worry about outlawing a political party, even the Communist party.

Some of the Republican candidates for president are split on this. Governor Thomas E. Dewey is against outlawing a political party. So is Senator Robert A. Taft. Harold E. Stessen is definitely for outlawing the Communist party.

Party Assailed

The house un-American Activities Commitee says the American Communist party:

1. Is part of a world-wide Communist conspiracy and is controlled by the Russian Communist party.

2. Advocates the "overthrow of our government by force and violence."

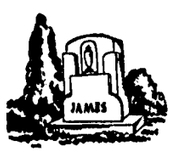

So far, that's what the committee says. It would have to prove those charges in court if the bill became law. So far the Supreme Court has not handed down a decision that would support the committee charges.

Precaution Urged In Water Sports By Health Chief

AUSTIN, May 13.—(Spl.)—Seasonal advice to vacationists concerning the proper precautions to be used in water sports was released from the state health department today by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

Lakes and ponds of unknown depth, and streams of unfamiliar currents are often the site of picnics and excursions, and the usual lifeguard supervision associated with bathing beaches and commercial swimming pools is, of course, not available in such places.

"Swimming and water sports are beneficial to good health provided one's physical condition justifies this type of exercise," Dr. Cox asserted. "Nevertheless, they possess dangerous possibilities if the rules of safety are disregarded through carelessness or thoughtlessness."

The state health officer outlined the following simple rules for bathing and swimming safety: At least one hour should elapse after a meal before entering the water; upon the first indication of fatigue, come ashore, and don't re-enter the water; if chilled, leave the water immediately; do not enter the water when overheated; learn to float—this is important; never attempt to rock a boat in a spirit of fun; and never swim in water that may be polluted.

"Outdoor excursions, picnics, and swimming parties contribute much to a healthy, happy, normal life," Dr. Cox said. "It is by no means advisable to eliminate these pleasures from our summer program, but it is important that they prove beneficial and not disastrous."

Schultz has been employed by the city to rid Lake Halbert of undesirable fish, and has caught the three huge catfish prizes in the process.

Rat Control Is Being Discussed

A rat control program on a long-range plan was discussed Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the public health committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee, headed by Dr. W. W. Carter, planned an educational campaign designed to acquaint the public with the disease spread and property damage done each year by the rodents.

The city has been without an overall control program for some time, although many merchants employ an expert to keep their premises as free as possible from the rats.

Opening Of Wheat Harvest Finds Crop In Texas Below Normal From Drouth

By The Associated Press

A start on harvesting the nation's estimated 845,484,000 bushel winter wheat crop pointed attention today to the crop's drouth-stunted condition in Texas.

The season's first load was early Black Hull variety, cut on a 450-acre field in Young county, Texas, yesterday by Elmer E. Hennig of the Ingleside community.

Activity swung today sixty odd miles west to Haskell county, where County Agent F. W. Martin said several fields were almost ready and combining was expected to start today or tomorrow. Haskell produced the nation's first wheat last year.

Harvesting Begins

Harvesting in Young county was expected to begin again the first of next week. Both Young and Haskell counties are in that general North Texas-Oklahoma section around Wichita Falls, where the U. S. winter wheat harvest annually begins.

A survey by the Wichita Falls Record News of Texas counties in the area referred to prospects as bleak. An Amarillo authority, F. M. Phariss, comparing conditions with those in the Panhandle and South Plains, said "most of the wheat crop in Texas is going to be made in the area around Wichita county."

Phariss, assistant manager of the Producers Grain Corporation at Amarillo, said there was urgent need of rain throughout the Panhandle.

Little Planted

A report from Lubbock said only about one-quarter of the total acreage of wheat planted on the South Plains last year, was planted in 1948 because of a lack of moisture, and that extended drouth has badly damaged what little wheat was planted.

A record crop came off Texas wheat acreage in the Panhandle last year. That section produces 80 per cent of the state's wheat.

Hennig averaged about 12 bushels to the acre in his cut yesterday. He hauled the load to Olney where it tested 60 pounds per bushel with a moisture content at 14 and one helf per cent. He said he was offered $2.12 a bushel and would decide today whether to sell or store his load.

Wheat was quoted in Wichita Falls yesterday at $2.15 a bushel compared with $2.40 last year.

Rains Help

Soaking rains followed by cool, dry weather were cited as speeding the harvest in Young county, although prospects were far below normal in North Texas because of generally extreme dry weather.

Officials of the M-K-T and Fort Worth and Denver City railroads reported box cars concentrated since May 5 to handle wheat, and plenty of cars were expected to be available as the crop develops.

County agents in the area also said combines will be plentiful for handling the crop.

Wichita County Agent G. R. McNeil predicted only half a crop from an estimated 65,000 acres, about 5,000 acres under last year. He expects no combining in the county until about June 1.

Some Grain Turning

Recent rains and cool weather have helped rather than harmed Clay county's prospects, Agent J. H. Miller said. Some grain near Henrietta is turning but will not be ready for another two weeks. Miller predicted a yield of six to 15 bushels an acre, although some farmers may get as high as 30.

Martin said that in Haskell county despite a 10,000-acre increase this year, the anticipated yield will amount to only 3 to 10 bushels as compared with an average of 18 last year.

"Good" prospects were reported from Wilbarger county by County Agent Frand Wendt with about a 14-bushel yield. The harvest of approximately 100,000 acres is expected around June 1.

Knox county reported prospects of only a third of a crop this year. The yield was 20 bushels an acre last year. County Agent, Max Carpenter placed this year's output at only seven bushels.

The outlook for surviving wheat in Hardeman county is good, Roy Stockard, agent, said.

Charles J. Whitfield, director of the Amarillo Conservation experiment Station, said: "The weatherman promises us nothing, but we still hope."

He said Southern Panhandle farmers were beginning to plow up wheat fields, or graze them with cattle. He said they were preparing to plant row crops, chiefly grain sorghums.
